

Merry Christmas 2025

Sing to the tune of "The Christmas Waltz"

It's that time of year
When the world comes alive
With parties and presents
And hopeful high-fives

We greet everyone
With warmth and good cheer
Both children and adults
At the most wonderful time of the year

The presents are opened
There's laughter and tears
But those tariffs keep coming
And filling us with fears

Kids' toys are affected
The prices aren't clear
It's the most challenging, wonderful
Time of the year

We pray for the lonely
The sick and the lost
For those without anyone
Whatever the cost

There's a list to remember
Marjorie Taylor Greene tops it, my dear
Time to say goodbye
And good riddance to this year

This political essay could ramble right on
But I'll spare you the details
And end with this song

We wish 2026 brings peace and calm days
And maybe some politicians
Who'll actually change their ways

Love,
Laurie, Eric and the Dresser Family
